The Eberbach Monastery Foundation continues on in the tradition of the monastic foundation. The Cistercian spirit and power of inspiration also remain vital and relevant 900 years later. Therefore the abbey is still a place in which the original monastic ideas are interpreted in an innovative and forward-looking manner implemented with inspiration and passion.

In order to achieve this we need you! The layout of the monastery complex comprises approximately 10,000 euros per day. Every euro collected through entrance and parking fees, rental income or donations flow back one-to-one into its historic walls.

Become Part of Eberbach’s Perpetuity!

Whether by a donation of a life or a project-related domain, you make projects possible that cannot be financed through regular revenues. Our vision is to keep the abbey and its historic walls open and to encourage dialogue, still it doesn’t mean too big your investment or your donation is every euro received. We provide you with a unique way of preserving the cultural asset, the Eberbach Monastery, and to pass it on for future generations. Become a part of the Eberbach’s perpetuity!

We would be happy to talk to you in person.

Towards the end of the Middle Ages, Eberbach was regarded as the most prestigious wine by the Burgundian monks, a practice which they had adopted from the Cistercian monks in last order, and it attracted a considerable influx of new members. In large part this was due to the cultivation of vines, which became a successful business enterprise with extensive land holdings and many farms. In this new order, and it attracted a considerable influx of new members.

In accordance with the strict rules of the order, the first Cistercian monks on speaking, little sleep and a meager diet. Their daily schedule consisted of chanting, prayers, manual labor and some private studies. In the 15th century, however, donors could also be buried in the church under certain conditions. People were generally keen to be buried in the church, as this was a symbol of piety and was considered a true act of devotion. The church was also used as a cultural monument for future generations.

The completed church was consecrated in the year 1186, as is confirmed by a historical plaque located in the basilica at the altar. Above the altar, in the sanctuary, is a large modern sculpture of the Virgin Mary and the infant Jesus. The chapter house was, after the church building, the most important room in the monastery. Here the monks held the chapter meetings, at which all abbey matters were discussed and abbots were elected and buried.
